U.S. Patent and Trademark Office PTOL-303 (Rev. 4-05) Continuation of 11. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: The amendment was not entered. The arguments regarding the end of the fiber do not appear to be relevant because they are directed to one of Okude's irrelevant embodiments. The only relevent embodiment is the embodiment that the rejection is based on (see Final Rejection). Since Applicant has not pointed out how the claims fail to define over the relevant Okude embodiment, it is deemed that APplicant agrees that the claims are anticipated. As to "new and advantageous use" first Examiner is unaware as to the relevance to this (i.e. if such could overcome the prima facie case of obviousness, applicant should cite legal basis as to how such is a relevant secondary consideration); second, evidence to support the assertion, assertions can not take the place of evidence.
